ACKNOWLEDGMENT

We will begin this production of Priscilla Queen of the Desert the Musical by acknowledging that we are meeting on aboriginal land that has been inhabited by Indigenous peoples from the beginning.

As settlers, we're grateful for the opportunity to meet here and we thank all the generations of people who have taken care of this land – for thousands of years.

Long before today, as we gather here, there have been aboriginal peoples who have been the stewards of this place.

In particular, we acknowledge we are in Robinson-Huron Treaty territory and the land on which we are gathered is the traditional territory of the Anishnaabeg, specifically the Garden River and Batchewana First Nations, as well as Métis People.

DIRECTOR'S NOTES

What a ride it has been! Thank you to Lucas and Westend Theatre for allowing me to be a passenger on this wonderful bus named Priscilla. After reading the script, despite its mature themes and language, I fell in love with the characters straight away. It pulled at my heart strings like no other script has done. You will meet three characters, Tick, Bernadette and Adam, each carrying their own personal luggage, and each looking for acceptance, respect, inclusivity and love but instead discover that this world still suffers from a lot of hate, bigotry and discrimination. Priscilla has helped me grow and learn as a director and

I have many people to thank for that. We hit the jackpot with this cast of hardworking and professional actors who weren't afraid to tackle very difficult themes and characters to deliver a message of peace, hope and love. To Lucas and the Westend Theatre Team, thank you for supporting me every step of the way. Your help was truly appreciated. And finally, to my husband Cam and daughter, Sam for allowing me to do what I love to do. Love you. Lastly, this show could not have come at a better time...our community has been through some very dark times lately and now, more than ever, we need to respect, love and support each other.
