Acknowledgment

We will begin this production of Million Dollar Quartet by acknowledging that we are meeting on aboriginal land that has been inhabited by Indigenous peoples from the beginning.

As settlers, we're grateful for the opportunity to meet here and we thank all the generations of people who have taken care of this land - for thousands of years.

Long before today, as we gather here, there have been aboriginal peoples who have been the stewards of this place.

In particular, we acknowledge we are in Robinson-Huron Treaty territory and the land on which we are gathered is the traditional territory of the Anishnaabeg, specifically the Garden River and Batchewana First Nations, as well as Métis People.

Director's Notes

I'd like to welcome everyone to the 2023 season. This year's opener is Million Dollar Quartet and it is the perfect show to kick off what will be a very colourful year for West End Theatre Project.

This is a unique production for Sault Ste. Marie, as it is a full actor-musician musical. This production was a little harder to cast due to the fact that actors had to play instruments as well as sing. I want to thank our musical director, Rony Dal Cin, for assisting me in assembling the talented cast we have for you this evening.

Working with such talented musicians has been a different experience to the shows that we typically bring to the stage. Each piece of music you will hear tonight is being performed live on stage without any orchestral backup - in that regard, it is more like a concert than a musical.

We are very eager and excited to show you what we have planned for the 2023 season. This year is poised to be one full of colourful, vibrant entertainment, each bringing fresh, new elements to the local community stage.

Thank you and I hope you enjoy the show.

– Lucas Beaver
