

WEST END THEATRE PROJECT presents
BROADSWAY:
It's The Most Wonderful Time... Maybe!
A Holiday Show

Performance to take place November 30

Sault Ste. Marie, ON (October 12, 2023) – West End Theatre Project is announcing BROADSWAY: It's The Most Wonderful Time... Maybe! featuring the talents of Canadian Jazz, Theatre, and Cabaret icons Heather Bambrick, Diane Leah, and Julie Michels. Join The Broads for an evening of time-honoured holiday classics as well as some lesser-known seasonal gems.

The event will take place November 30 at The Loft in the Algoma Conservatory (75 Huron St.) at 7:30 p.m. Doors will be open at 7:00 p.m. for seating.

Whether performing as a trio or alongside some of Canada's finest Jazz and Theatre musicians, this show consistently brings audiences to their feet and is sure to be a brilliant addition to any concert series as a seasonal highlight!

"Three talented ladies who know their way around Jazz harmonies, sing their heads off, and actually entertain the hell out of their audiences!" ~ Jim Caruso, Host, Jim Caruso's Cast Party, Birdland, New York

"The Broads - beauty, brains, and talent - it doesn't get much better than that - wait, yes it does! Add their wicked sense of humour ... this CD is going to stay at the top of my rotation ... " ~ Sandy Graham, Cashbox Canada

Tickets to BROADSWAY: It's The Most Wonderful Time... Maybe! are available for purchase online at www.westendtheatreproject.ca or through the Algoma Conservatory website.